These beautiful four apartment buildings are situated in a unique location, on the periphery near the edge of the green zone of the Stari Grad, only 30 meters from the sea, on the island of Hvar.

The buildings are located on a large 4000 m² plot and are located in a pine forest. They are recently fully completed and ready for moving in. They have all the necessary documentation including a usage permit. Each building consists of 6 apartments with sea view. The apartments have a large living room connected with dining area and kitchen, two bedrooms, bathroom, storage room and terrace on the south side with breathtaking sea view.

Excellent and quiet location at the edge of the green zone, proximity to the beach as well as proximity to all necessary facilities and parking space for each apartment make them ideal for the full enjoyment and relaxation in the Adriatic.
