A modern two-bedroom apartment located in a quiet location in Split. The property is modernly decorated, while its proximity to the main road makes it a perfect choice for urban everyday life.

The property covers approximately 43m² of living space, and consists of two bedrooms, a bathroom, and an entrance hall, which leads to an open space where the kitchen, dining room and living room are located. The living room opens onto a loggia that covers approximately 7m² and a garden that covers almost 70m².

The entire property is south-facing, which further increases the level of comfort when staying in the property. This property represents a perfect combination of functionality and comfort, and is an ideal opportunity for those looking for quality living space in Split. An additional advantage of the new building itself is the location. In the immediate vicinity of the property, there are all the necessary amenities for everyday life, from schools, kindergartens, shops...

Final works, as well as the move-in itself, are expected in the winter of 2027.
